The Noose.

The hangman's record for the past year shows that 83 murderers were hanged in the United States. Of this number 47 were white, 34 colored, 1 Indian and 1 Chinaman, 4 were hanged for indecent assaults, 1 for burglary, 8 for wife-murder, 1 for filicide and 1 for fratricide. There were 3 double executions, 1 triple, 2 quadruple and one in which 6 men were hanged. Not a single woman was hanged; the only one sentenced to death, Mrs. Louisa Lawser of Virginia, had her sentence commuted to imprisonment for life by the Governor. Friday still maintains its reputation in the black list as the favorite day on which to enforce the death penalty, more murderers having hanged on that day than on all the other days of the week combined. Forty-seven murderers were hanged on Friday, 17 on Thursday, 8 on Saturday, 6 on Monday, 3 on Tuesday and 2 on Wednesday. There were 5 executions in January, 5 in February, 6 in March, 6 in April, 10 in May, 15 in June, 11 in July, 1 in August, 5 in September, none in October, 9 in November and 10 in December. Pennsylvania stands first in the list of States for the greatest number of executions during the past year, South Carolina being second. The executions were distributed among 25 States, as follows:
Pennsylvania, 16
South Carolina, 12
North Carolina, 5
California, 5

NEW PAPER.—While in Carson yesterday we heard it rumored that another daily paper is to be started in Virginia City, and that it is to be in the interests of John P. Jones for United States Senator.—Lyon County Times.

They are talking now of giving Cabinet officers a seat on the floor of the House, and allowing them to participate in debate. The move is a good one.

President Hayes has determined to make the Chinese question the subject of a special message to Congress.

Selections.

He who trusts a secret to his servant makes his own man his master.—Dryden

In short, virtue cannot live where envy reigns, nor liberality subsist with niggardness.

The one exclusive sign of a thorough knowledge is the power of teaching.—Aristotle.

Quarrels would never last long if the wrong was all on one side.—Roucheffoucauld.

Men usually follow their wishes till suffering compels them to follow their judgment.

The intellect of the truly wise man is like a glass—it admits the light of heaven, and reflects it.

Conscience is merely our judgment of the moral rectitude or turpitude of our own actions.—Locke.

Drink freely from the fountain of discretion and find the health of thy happiness preserved.

The sleep of memory is not its death; forgotten studies are certain aptitudes gone to sleep.

Whatever makes the past or the future predominate over the present, exalts us in the scale of thinking beings.—Johnson.

Habitual liars invent falsehoods not to gain any end or even to deceive their hearers, but to amuse themselves. It is partly practice and partly habit. It requires an effort in them to speak the truth.—Hazlitt.

The best application for the improvement of the countenance is a mixture of equal parts of serenity and cheerfulness. Anoint the face morning, noon and night.

Preserve your conscience always soft and sensitive. If but one sin force itself into that tender part of the soul and dwell there, the road is paved for a thousand iniquities.

From whatever cause it arises, however, taciturnity has always carried a certain amount of power with it, or at least has won a certain degree of respect. Beside the vague possibilities presented by a mind never laid open to inspection, men always entertain more or less respect for those who can do what they themselves are incapable of, and habitually to hold their tongues is with a majority of mankind a sheer impossibility. There are times when the most reserved are apt to afford peeps into their mental depths, or, it may be, their mental shallows, and there are few "masters of silence," from around whom such glimpses do not dispell more or less illusion. Silence is often thus found to be, if not actual weakness, at least nothing more than a screen for the concealment of mental vacuity and feebleness—a barrier against spies who come to view the nakedness of the land. It is when taciturnity is found associated with real power in a man that it becomes impressive.—Globe.

Since Mr. Beecher has abolished hell many of the orthodox believers in that fiery institution have changed opinion about that Tilton business.

The new silver dollars which Senator Jones has had made, as a sample of the good times to come with remonetization, are said to be worth seven or eight dollars apiece as works of art and beauty.

The barbers of San Francisco have formed a league offensive and defensive against the men who shave for ten cents. The customers ought to organize against barbers at any price.

SQUIRMING TO SHIFT THE RESPONSIBILITY.—It is amusing to note the grand and lofty tumbling of those who prevented a reduction of taxation at the last session of the Legislature. Having saddled upon the people an unnecessary burden falling little short of five hundred thousand dollars [if the present levy be not reduced at the expense of an extra session] they now seek to shift the responsibility. The Reno Gazette, a sheet lamentably deficient in knowledge and honesty, or both, in dealing with this question, is especially conspicuous in this regard. —Eureka Sentinel.

Yes, we are very deficient in knowledge which is palatable to you, but did you ever stop for a moment, dear, to inspect your own intellectual powers? Did you never seriously consider the cause of your being a political corpse to-day, instead of a lusty, active Democrat? Was it never borne in upon you, perhaps in the stillness of the night, that "vote catching" was, at best, an ignorant pretext? In the seasons when you reason most profoundly and call us dishonest, does it not come to you, slowly but surely, that there was no one on our side, to pay for dishonesty? And, finally, when in privacy you little battered Democratic slate is taken out with its unverified compromise equation, do you never think that justification is impossible? Read the Gazette of yesterday, friend, and drop the "five hundred thousand" absurdities which have clogged your mind in its ceaseless attempt to justify.

NO EXTRA SESSION.—Gov. Bradley has made up his mind not to call an extra session. He does not deny the correctness of Controller Hobart's figures, but thinks the figures are deceptive. With all due regard to Governor Bradley's astuteness on matters of "figures," we incline to the belief that most persons would prefer to trust the estimates of the State Controller. Time will tell which is right, and if taxpayers find, when they are paying their taxes this year, that more than half the expense might have been saved them by an extra session, they will waste few blessings on the Governor. —Virginia Chronicle.

The Chronicle, it will be seen, is careful in its treatment of the subject, and no doubt begins to suspect the presence of a nigger in this financial fence.

In the Carson Appeal of yesterday appears an article headed, "The Extra Session Question—Some Plain Political Talk"—in which the writer asks pardon for accepting Treasurer Schofield's word, and confesses that through indolence and stupidity he got on the wrong track, and for a moment opposed the spirit of the compromise. He also alludes to Washoe County's scheme of robbery and says other pleasant things to which we shall allude in future. It has been intimated that Mr. Mighels would be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, but after reading this clumsy editorial we do not believe it.

Speaking of the proposed investigation of Hayes by Conkling the Enterprise says:

We place no little confidence in the report. The source of the story entitles it to but credence; and, in the next place, we find it difficult to believe it possible for a man of Conkling's admitted sagacity and good sense to seriously contemplate a movement so fraught with evil to the Republican party and disaster to himself. The entertainment of such a resolution would carry with it a censure of every Republican Senator who voted to sustain the findings of the Electoral Commission, and of no one more than Mr. Conkling himself. The adoption by the Senate of a resolution of the character mentioned would be impossible; but if Mr. Conkling really craves political damnation, let him introduce it. Without knowing anything of the sympathies of Senator Jones, we regard him as altogether too shrewd and consistent a politician to be induced to take part in any scheme of retaliation so politically indecent and so sure of ignominious defeat.

The Cabinet yesterday discussed the report of the Board of Engineers appointed by Secretary of War to examine the Eads improvements of the Mississippi river and approved the same; whereupon it was decided that Eads shall receive the amount of money appropriated by Congress for his payment upon a compliance by him with the provisions of the law.

Freedom M. Rice has been appointed Sheriff and Gauger for the Third District of California.

The Chinese Question.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—President Hayes has definitely determined to make the Chinese question the subject of a special message to Congress. In the message he will call attention to the present and prospective evils of unlimited Chinese immigration to this country, and will recommend Congress to take such action as in its wisdom may be most proper and effective to restrict and regulate the immigration of Mongolians. The President has not yet decided whether he will suggest any particular measure for the attainment of these objects, but at present it seems probable that he will confine himself to a forcible presentation of the necessity for action and leave for the two Houses of Congress the task of devising the proper remedy. It is also quite probable that the President will direct the Secretary of State to notify the Chinese Government, through the usual diplomatic channels that some action on its part is required to restrict the immigration of its subjects to this country, but nothing positive in regard to making such a notification has yet been determined. The President expects to have the message ready for transmission to Congress soon after its reassembling.

Well, to conclude, time is demonstrating the correctness of everything claimed in the contest by the supporters of the compromise measure. They said the treasury would be overflowing with money. That is so. —Eureka Sentinel.

That is not so.

They said the levy should be cut down, not raised, on all descriptions of property. That is so, as is exemplified by the clamor throughout the State for an extra session of the Legislature to do precisely what Governor and his advisers prevented being done at the late regular session. —Sentinel.

That is not so in any portion.

They said the State had no occasion to borrow money. That is so. —Sentinel.

That is a plain statement of the case. —Sentinel.

A plain statement of the tax case never appeared in the Sentinel.

And no amount of trimming can shift the responsibility. —Sentinel.

That is so.

The obstructionists have cost the taxpayers of Nevada five hundred thousand dollars in two years, and nothing more or less can be made out of the situation. —Sentinel.

That is not so by $900,000.

Who Was That Washoe County Man?

As soon as I stepped on the train at Reno, for Carson, I met a Washoe county man and he commenced to talk politics. The Washoe county men are all politicians, and they want to open the political campaign right now. I told this man that I was from the "Great East" and did not know anything about politics—but he insisted on how Lander would stand on Lieutenant-Governor. I told him Lander had a man of her own whom she was going to run for Lieutenant-Governor; and he wanted to know his name; and I said it was Martin Seng; and he said he had never heard of him before; but supposed he must be a capitalist; and I said he was; and then I changed the subject and spoke of the cold weather; and then he said "yes," it was cold and asked if I thought Bradley could be elected for a third term; and I said he could if he got votes enough. —Correspondence Renville.

Who was that man? Come, now, let's understand this thing.

Central Pacific railroad stock is now on the market. Another bait for the unwary.

If such journals as the Gold Hill News, Carson Tribune, Eureka Republican, and the Journal and Gazette of Reno are sincere in their support of the Administration, they cannot consistently advocate the re-election of John P. Jones to the United States Senate. —Silver State.

If such journals as the Silver State, Virginia Chronicle and Eureka Sentinel are sincere in their support of the Compromise Bill, they must support Hobart for Governor.

Gov. Bradley says a few things in to-day's Enterprise which settles the extra session business beyond all question. Hobart's political move retracts like a boomerang, and now the papers which took it up are retracting or quietly holding their peace.

A correspondent of the Carson Appeal, addressing the editor of that paper says: "I earnestly hope to have the privilege of helping to elect you Governor or something of the sort, as you are needed in political life." The editor stars the sentence, and in a foot note modestly says: "How true this is."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Opening Exercises.

At ten o'clock this morning the East-vent term of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls was formally opened. The corps of teachers, about the same number of young ladies and miss's that were in attendance last term, and a number of lady and gentlemen visitors were present. After the impressive religious service had been concluded, Bishop Whitaker gave the pupils an address of welcome and a home talk. We saw in the good man's face the impress of a father's pleasure. He was speaking to those for whom he has an abiding interest; in a sense, they are to him as members of his own household; he seemed to comprehend their wants and was familiar with the general thought and surrounding of each one. New faces sat before him; a few familiar ones were absent, yet the occasion was in harmony with his own thought and purpose, and his words fell not on unat-entative or unappreciating ears. His thoughts and words so fitly chosen, were in keeping with the occasion. It is not alone, said he, young ladies that you come here to pursue the regular studies of a prescribed course, but also to cultivate those graces and virtues which make the true woman. Books are the sources of valuable knowledge, but illly disciplined is the mind and heart which is a stranger to additional culture. Home and soci-ety will urge their claims and it de-velops upon each one of you to fit yourself, largely by the auxiliaries here furnished, but principally by your own exertions for future as well as present usefulness. Let it be yours, on your return home, to more com-pletely fill the place now made vacant by your absence. Often may the thoughts of home enliven your wish to be with those at home, but the re-flection that your parents have made and are making the larger sacrifice for your good, will stimulate you to renewed exertion to improve your op-portunities, and in a marked degree tide over home sickness without weak-ening the indissoluble bonds which bind you to home.

The term begins under favoring cir-cumstances, notwithstanding that money is very scarce throughout the State. About the same number of scholars will be in attendance, this term as were present last term. We have at other times been present dur-ing class instruction, and take pleas-ure in stating that the system of teaching practiced at this school is as perfect as that elsewhere given in sim-ilar education institutions on this coast. The instruction is thorough and satisfactory. It is a school which belongs to Nevada, and of which our State is proud, and we believe will handsomely maintain.

ROVER IN DOUBT.—J. W. Rover believes that the statement that the Supreme Court had affirmed the decision of our District Court was simply manufactured by the Reno papers. When the same statement was showed him in the Enterprise he was still doubtful, having every belief that the Court would grant him a new trial. He has studied and written so much on his case that his mind has evident-ly become more or less effected in consequence. He seems confident that he will not be hung, in fact de-clares that he never will be hung. It is presumed that he will attempt to take his own life or try the crazy dodge. The consciousness of his undoubted guilt and his anxiety over the matter during nearly three years' incarceration has considerably upset his mind. It may be that he will yet cost the State several thousand dollars. Jus-tice is sometimes expensive.

GRAND JURORS.—The following is a list of the Grand Jurors drawn for the present term of Court: John Cahlan, J. E. Jones, Geo. Alt, G. W. Huff-aker, H. H. Beck, Ross Lewers, C. A. Bragg, J. C. Hagerman, J. W. Hol-brook, Wm. Duck, John Lee, M. Na-than, B. G. Clow, R. S. Osburn, Al-varo Evans, A. J. Clark, John Wright, J. C. Smith, J. J. Poer, E. Owens, C. A. Gibson, Frank Dickinson, Rufus Kinney, J. F. Alexander.

ANOTHER FIRE.—This morning a fire broke out in the Friable property, corner of First and King streets Car-son. The Friable restaurant and saloon and Ivanwick's fruit stand were burned. Loss about $2,500.

Jottings.

How it did blow last night. Frank Chase has closed out his store and hangs out a card "Store to Let." The alate in the Justice Court re-mains clean. No business, no locals. Gus Ash, U. S. Marshal, was in town to-day with some of his deputies. S. Arnstein of Wadsworth was in the burg last evening. Alta eased off about $10 in the board this morning.

About Twenty purchasing orders are received at our banks, when only five to sell stocks are recorded. The temporary injunction on the Highland Ditch Company has been re-moved.

John Cashion, Esq., of Nevada City, Cal., is in the burg to-day. It is meet that he is with us, and meat that he comes to see.

Freight shipments are less over the C. P. R. R. now than they have been for months, and will so continue for two months longer.

Remember Prof. Jacobson's soiree to-morrow evening at the Opera House. Jacobson is a first-class musician and will give our citizens some find dances.

After ten o'clock last night a high wind prevailed for several hours. Then came a very refreshing shower of rain—just sufficient to completely lay the dust.

Marshal MacMahon felt his surren-der so keenly that when he had to sign the message to the Chambers announcing it, he shut his eyes so as not to see the words.

Ice houses are now popular in Reno and will continue to be unless the skaters get tired of skating and hire out to haul ice then no one would care for ice.

Should anyone feel like sending in the coin for their last year's subscrip-tion the same will not be refused by this office. In fact we respectfully urge you to do so, as we want the money.

A party will shortly leave Reno for Bodie. They will charter a convey-ance and take with them a complete prospecting outfit. Extremely cold weather prevails in that section just now, but the boys say they will go prepared for it.

The dance at Huffaker's on the 18th will be one of the most social and enjoyable parties ever given in the county, and many of our citizens have already expressed their intention of being present.

Skating last night and to-day went on rather lively, but the attendance at the pond was not so large nor the ice in as good condition as it has been for the past week. The ice-grabbers, to-gether with the moderated condition of the weather, will soon render the pond unfit for skating.

An Assessment No. 5 of two cents per share has been levied on Jones & Linkead mining stock. See advertisement. If this were in Vir-ginia City this assessment would be at least $1 per share. A number of persons feel that the mine has noth-ing but assessments, and feel induced to aid in the development of what is claimed to be a good mine. It has tons of ore already in sight, which yield good assays. Its owners are satisfied that they have a good mine and are developing it as economically as is done in any mine on the Pacific Coast. Stockholders pay your small assessments, this stock will not go begging.

DISTRICT COURT.—January 10.—In the case of I. Marshall vs. Golden Fleece Mining Company, D. Z. Yost upon application was allowed to join the plaintiff in above cause. A motion to dissolve injunction was also made, argued, and taken under advisement by the Court. Hunter vs. Truckee Lodge—motion for new trial argued and denied. Court then adjourned until next Monday.

Some 25,000 shares of Alta were sold to-day at prices ranging from $13.50 to $16 per share. Justice ad-vanced half a dollar. The other stocks hold their own. There is little reason why Justice should not be as good as Alta. It has at least a better title, and is said to have the same class of ore and of the same richness.

The Meat Shipping Association to-day shipped another refrigerator car load of fresh meat to San Francisco. This company make shipments every two or three days, or from two to three cars per week.

A Texan's View of the Border Line Troubles.

From Mr. A. J. Burnett, recently from Austin, Texas, we gather a few interesting statements in reference to the border line trouble between our Government and our sister Republic, Mexico. Mr. Burnett says that the aggressions have, in the main, been made by Mexicans who have for years been more or less a source of annoy-ance to the residents along the Rio Grande. The hold of President Diaz is not sufficiently strong to repress those thieving, turbulent bands which roam almost at will in the most north-ern or border line part of Mexico. He does not believe but what Diaz is en-deavoring to act in good part with the United States and General Ord, nor does he hold but what there are half-breeds and even low Americans who are causing part of the disturbance of which complaint is made. Texas has taken a new stand and is now one of the best governed and law abiding States of the Union. Her settlers along the Rio Grande have been com-pelled to leave their homes and go into the interior of the State from 50 to 150 miles. The Government, he says, is meeting hearty support from Governor Hubbard, and at any time that additional aid shall be called for it will be promptly given. It has been claimed that because Texas strongly favored the war of '46, she also favors a war to-day, for similar reasons and in a similar spirit. This, he claims, is not true. The Texans do not desire war for territorial acquisition, nor merely to fight. She has a small tur-bulent element, but this she can suc-cessfully manage. But Texas wants lawless Mexicans to stay at home, or be made to do so. Were justice prop-erly dealt out in wholesome quanti-ties along the Rio Grande, order would be restored and every industry re-sumed, but a nice observance of war etiquette will not effect this result. There must be a little practical busi-ness first.

U. S. Grant Jr. favored Reno with his presence last night. This morning he hurried away to Virginia City. The young gentleman has a manly appear-ance, and means to have a good time in the United States while his papa is doing the Orient.

Ophir was 53, 53 1/4 today; Mexican 15, 15 1/4; Alta opened at 16 and shrank to 13 1/2 under heavy sales; Alpha 12 1/4; Jacket 10 1/4; Con. Virginia 25 1/4. That's about the way they run.

A subscriber describes Localitem as a young man with full beard, who peddled bibles once and occasionally preaches.

The Enterprise, in speaking of Gov. Bradley's communication, says: "We pass the Governor's rather petulant allusion to the Enterprise. We are full of charity." Remarkably so. We have heard of similar cases of charity before. However, a virtual confession is acceptable.

The First Corpse.

"We can't do justice to this extra session business any longer in prose, after reading the Enterprise of to-day, and propose to "drop into poetry just in a friendly way"—

[Air, "Cock Robin"—Short Meter.]

Who loves the Compromise? "Well" cry the candidates. "Witness our tears and cries. Still love the Compromise."

Who'll make exhibits? "I," said Bill Hobart. As right as a trivet—"I'll make the exhibit."

Who'll call the session? "I," said G. Cassidy; "Create a vacancy. I'll call the session."

How can we justify? "Mighels says, 'I've a way: Let's all apologize.' Seeing through Hobart's eyes He loves the Compromise— That is the way.

MORAL:

Who killed Bill Hobart? "I," says Old Broadhorse. "With my common Jerry. With my common Schooling— I killed Bill Hobart."

It will be seen from the above that when a little blank verse is needed we are rather handy ourselves.

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has re-moved to the store formerly occupied by Misses Brown & Harney, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general as-sortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and sell them cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

The War on President Hayes.

New York, Jan. 8th.—A Washington special to the Herald says: Persons who claim to speak with knowledge of what is going to be done when the Senate again meets, assert that Senator Conkling will either offer himself, or will have offered, a carefully drawn resolution reciting that there are grave accusations made upon apparently good authority, involving the right of the President to the office held by him, and that such accusation ought to be set at rest by official inquiry into the alleged facts. The scope of the resolution, it is stated, will not attempt to implicate President Hayes, but it is asserted that it does implicate Senator Stanley Matthews, Secretary Sherman and Congressman John A. Garfield, all of Ohio. The impression is that Senator Conkling will not personally offer the resolution, but that it may be done by Senator Howe of Wisconsin or Senator Jones of Nevada, and that its language will be so carefully drawn as to make it very difficult for the Southern Democratic Senators to vote against it. It is further claimed that Senators Thurman and McDonald of the Judiciary Committee, with Judge Davis of Illinois, who is counted a neutral on all political issues, will support the resolution. The opposition anticipated is from Southern Democratic Senators.

Among the facts relied upon to show that the Louisiana electoral vote was bargained for, are, it is said, the affidavits of Cassanove and Kenner, members of the Returning Board, who claim that they have not been dealt with according to the original bargain. The documents will also be relied upon to furnish the connection between the acquiescence in the count in the House and the promises entered into by Grant and Stanley Matthews. It is under the pretext of an effort to relieve the Republican party of complicity in the alleged bargaining that this examination is proposed to be made. It is said that proof will be brought to show that the visiting statesmen made promises to Packard and the Returning Board, which have not been fulfilled. In fact, the whole proceedings of the visiting statesmen are to be overhauled, with the hope to cover them with dirt or to expose what they have said, done or promised.

A CAR LOAD.—It is now a matter of interest to many people to know what constitutes a car load. An exchange has been inquiring into the matter, and gives the following as the result of the inquiry: Nominally a broad-gauge car load is 20,000 pounds, dead weight. We say that 70 barrels of salt, 200 of lime, 90 of flour, 60 of whisky, 200 sacks of flour, 6 cords of soft wood, 18 to 20 head of cattle, 50 or 60 head of hogs, 80 to 100 head of sheep, 9,000 feet of solid boards, 17,000 feet of siding, 13,000 feet of flooring, 40,000 shingles, one-half less of hard lumber, one-fourth less green lumber, one-tenth of joists, scantling and all other large timber, 340 bushels of wheat, 300 of ear corn, 350 of shelled corn, 670 of oats, 400 of barley, 360 of apples, 340 of Irish potatoes, 370 of sweet potatoes, or 1,000 bushels of bran make a car load.

"What is the matter with you?" inquired a gentleman who had called to see his neighbor, a German, in Chicago. "Well, I don't know—it is a der gout—but vy should I have him?" "Perhaps," suggested his friend, "it is hereditary." "I think it is hereditary; I remember my wife's uncle have him."

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. De Dalinge, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878.
